Continuing Education

The Board took no action on Elite Continuing Education request stating the guidelines for continuing education courses are in the Dental Practice Act. The Board will no longer approve continuing education courses on an individual basis.

CPR Certification

The Board took no action on ProCPR stating the guidelines for CPR courses are outlined in the Dental Practice Act. It was also noted that online CPR courses are not approved and must be hands on courses.

Botox/Dermal Filler courses

Aesthetic Trainers, Common Sense Dentistry and Facial Rejuvenation Training

The Board took no action regarding continuing education courses relevant to Botox and other injectables. The Board stated that any certified course for Botox and other injectables must be hands on courses approved by the ADA or AGD. The Board will no longer approve individual courses. The Board would like to have the perioral region defined in the board policy. The Board asked staff to research how courses can be tracked through renewals for those dentists using Botox and other injectables.

AADE Annual Meeting Report

Dr. Dixon and Dr. Jones attended the American Association of Dental Examiners (AADE) Annual Meeting in Honolulu, Hawaii. They reported the name has been changed to the American Association of Dental Boards (AADB). Dr. Dixon reported that an impressive simulated course on emergency training airway treatment for sedation cases was presented at the meeting. He stated the Board may want to consider including a course relevant to emergency training for general dentists in the Dental Practice Act. Dr. Dixon recommended Dr. Goins and Dr. Jones review the American Dental Association (ADA) guidelines for sedation.

Dr. Goins presented a letter from the American Association of Dental Boards recommending state Boards require an online sexual boundary continuing education course for new licensees and for renewal of licensure every five years. The Board stated that this course will only be recommended if someone crosses the sexual boundary line.

Dr. Goins reported that the AADB Mid-Year meeting will be held in Chicago April 11-12. Dr. Dixon and Ms. Reynolds will be attending. Dr. Dixon reported this meeting is always informative and those in attendance received information concerning what other states Boards are doing.
