Requirements and Instructions for application for Licensure as a Professional Soil Classifier or Certification as a Soil Classifier-in-Training

Submit the following documentation, you will have the opportunity to upload these at the end:

- Copy of your valid Driver's License, State Issued Photo ID, or Passport.
- Copy of your Social Security Card.
- Legal documentation of name change, if applicable (marriage cert, divorce decree, etc)
- Verification of Lawful Presence (attached)

For applicants applying by Comity:

You will list all states/jurisdictions where you hold a license to practice Soil Classifying. Forward the "License Verification Form" to these states, and have them return the completed form directly to the Council office.

Exam Information:

The Soil Science Society of America must document your successful completion of these examinations unless you are applying for licensure by comity, in which case the other state of licensure may provide exam documentation.

Education:

Request official transcript bearing the seal and signature and seal of the Registrar to be sent to our office at the above address.

Experience:

Document only experience related to soil classifying. Forward the "Soil Employment Verification" form to these companies and have them return the completed form directly to the Council office.

Professional References (Professional Soil Classifiers Only):

List at least five citizens or permanent residents of the USA, three of whom shall be registered Soil Classifiers or Soil Scientists, not relatives or members of this Department or the Council, who will provide information in regard to your character and professional ability. Forward the "Soil Reference Form" (Link is available under Applications and Forms on the website) to these individuals and have them return the form directly to the Council office.

All forms can be found on the Soil Classifiers website on the Applications and Forms page.

Allow 24 hours after submitting your application to check your application status online.
