Ms. Frierson stated this meeting is a formal meeting that is being recorded, transcribed and posted to the Commission's web page once approved by the Commission. She further stated that all remarks made should be true and the meeting is being conducted under the rules of parliamentary procedure.

Administrator's Remarks - Lenora Addison-Miles

Ms. Addison-Miles stated as of August 16, 2004, 1,003 auctioneers and 160 auction firms are currently licensed. She further stated that expired license letters and cease and desist orders were mailed on August 4, 2004 to those individuals and firms that have not renewed licenses for fiscal year 2005. She indicated those letters were not mailed to the individuals appearing before the Commission today. She said that on July 28, 2004 staff mailed probation letters to those individuals who are currently on probation and require bobcat. However, he was leaving for California and did not have the extra money to purchase the machine. He indicated the individual left the bobcat in his yard and he left for his trip the next day. He went on to say he was in New Mexico when he received a phone call indicating the bobcat in his yard had been stolen. He apologized to the officer and to the individuals who had reported the bobcat stolen. He made a voluntary statement regarding what happened and indicated that no money had been exchanged. He was charged with receiving stolen property.

MINUTES South Carolina Auctioneer

MOTION

Ms. McCoy moved the Commission discuss this matter in executive session. The motion was seconded by Mr. Blocker and unanimously carried.

2. Applicants for Initial Licensure

a. Cindy Causey (East Columbia Auction)

Ms. Miles stated Ms. Causey has submitted an application for a firm license. She indicated that she passed the exam with a score of 86. She went on to say Ms. Causey's credit report indicates she has approximately $3,000 in unpaid collection accounts and several ocker anoff accounts scorenoted that staff has not received an explanation regarding these accounts scorefurther stated Ms. Causey was notified, in a9 Ttter dated June 7, 2004, that she should appear at this meeting and that a written explanation regarding her credit report was needed. (Ms. Causey's application and credit report are herewith attached and becomes a permanent paoof this record retained at the office.)

Ms. Causey was not prT* nt for the meeting.

MOTION

Mr. Moody made a motion, seconded by Mr. Blocker and unanimously carried, that the Commission deny this application until sudo moipoa/loium appli stessey haas not reMOTION

Ms. Miles srccot TD deny thyas leavilitial Licv Coas i hacityhe ehTD (C (Cppiccounte lef

MINUTES South Carolina Auctioneer

Mr. Blocker moved the Commission approve the information as received. The motion was seconded by Mr. Mullis and unanimously carried. Mr. Blocker amended the motion to accept the Reppert School of Auctioneering pending receipt of detailed instructor resumes. Ms. McCoy seconded the amendment, which carried unanimously. 4. Requests for Continuing Education Approvals

a. William Barry Kelley (course/instructor approval)

Ms. Miles stated Mr. Kelley is asking for the Commission's approval to instruct three classes: The Auctioneer's Guide to the Real Estate Appraisal Process, The Auctioneer's Guide to the Internal Revenue Service Form 8300, and Auctioneering Trust Accounting. (Documentation regarding these courses is herewith attached and becomes a permanent part of this record retained in the Commission's office.)

William Barry Kelley appeared before the Commission at this time.

instructor who will serve with Wendell Hanson. Mr. Hanson will serve as a proctor on the courses. She went on say she spoke with a representative from the Tennessee Auctioneer Commission who indicated thot Commission is familiar with Ms. Browning because she is an employee of the Nashville Auction School, however, the Commission has not approved her as an instructor. (This documentation is herewith attached and becomes a permanent legal opinion regarding Mr. Kelley's continuing education. Mr. Kelley voiced his approval of on-line continuing education.

Lunch 12:45 pa.m.