Instructors and Schools:

The Board has revised its list of approved document translation companies. After August 11, 2025, documents will no longer be accepted from Aequo. Students using this service are advised to have their document translation completed by that date. The Board will not accept documents translated by Aequo after August 11, 2025.

Additionally, the following providers have been approved by the Board to provide document translation services as of February 10, 2025:

Josef Silny & Associates, Inc

International Education Research Foundation Inc.

National Association of Credential Evaluation Services - This is an association with multiple accredited translation companies for an applicant to choose from.
