

Prescriptions Policy and Procedure #066

The practitioner is responsible for the integrity of the prescription. The pharmacist must use his/her professional judgment in accepting and may refuse or check with the practitioner if any doubt exists regarding the prescription's validity.

Prescriptions received by a pharmacist from a patient must have an original signature or e-signature of a practitioner.

Rubber stamped signatures are not acceptable.