EXPERIENCE VERIFICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Procedure for Verification of Actual Operating Experience

Form Instructions

1. In order to document the one (1) year of actual operating experience required for each level of promotion, a licensed 'A' or 'B' level driller must complete, sign and submit this form to the Board. Operators are encouraged to submit the forms electronically to Johnnie.Rose@llr.sc.gov. Incomplete forms will be returned unprocessed.
2. The required experience verification form MUST contain the following information:
 - A. Driller's Name
 - B. Current License Number and Drilling Category(s)
 - C. Name and address of employment where operating experience was gained
 - D. Requested license level and category(s)
 - E. Dates of employment that is to be considered. South Carolina Law requires completion of one (1) year of experience as a well driller for each level of license.
 - F. List the name and license number of the 'A' or 'B' licensed supervising driller.

Work Experience Calculation

1. Actual operating experience begins on the day the application is accepted by LLR. In instances where the applicant has been employed and has been drilling under proper supervision, up to ninety (90) days of work experience credit may be applied.
2. Work Experience Substitutions: Both degree and non-degree related education credits may be considered by the Board towards the A, B, and C levels of licensure; once you have obtained your D level license. The Board will only consider credit for math and science courses. 30 hours of Board approved educational credits = one year of work experience. Military experience, Board approved Operator Certification programs, and Board approved Apprenticeship programs may also be considered towards work experience credit. Official transcripts and/or course completion documentation must be submitted to the Board for review. All applicants must complete one year of actual operating experience and pass the appropriate examinations before educational experience will be considered.
