HOME INSPECTOR LICENSE APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS AND INSTRUCTIONS

This application is for initial licensure applicants and applicants who have been in inactive or lapsed status for more than three years. If you would like to apply for reinstatement of a license that has been lapsed or inactive for less than three years, please complete the Home Inspector Reinstatement Application.

Experience/Education requirements must be verified and approved prior to applicants being made eligible for the appropriate examination. Once your application is approved by the Commission, staff will email/mail you the Examination Eligibility Letter.

METHODS OF LICENSURE

LICENSURE BY SOUTH CAROLINA TECHNICAL EXAMINATION

A Home Inspector license may be obtained by technical examination, if the applicant has taken and passed both the Business Management and Law and the SC Home Inspector portions of the examination.

Experience/Education Requirements:

Applicants are required to meet one of the below experience/education requirements before they can be made eligible for the examination.

- A minimum of one year of experience as a home inspector under the direction and direct supervision of a licensed home inspector, residential builder, general contractor, engineer, or architect.

Copies of W2s and/or 1099s from employers should be provided with the application. The Home Inspector Experience Affidavit form must be completed by each supervisor/employer listed under the experience/education section of this application. If the information on the application does not match the Home Inspector Experience Affidavit(s), your application will be returned for corrections.

OR

- Successful completion of a formal course of training or study in home inspection approved by the Commission. Course completion certificates are valid for three (3) years and must match the applicant's legal name. The Commission has approved courses with a minimum of 120 hours (not multiple courses that add up to 120 hours). Approved course providers can be found here. These providers may offer multiple courses related to performing home inspections, but the Commission only accepts the courses that are a minimum of 120 hours.

LICENSURE BY NATIONAL HOME INSPECTOR (NHIE) EXAMINATION

A Home Inspector license may be obtained without the technical portion of the examination, if the applicant has taken and passed the NHIE examination within the last three (3) years. Applicants must still take and pass the Business Management and Law portion of the examination.

Experience/Education Requirements:

Applicants are required to meet one of the below experience/education requirements before they can be made eligible for the Business Management and Law portion of the examination.

- A minimum of one year of experience as a home inspector under the direction and direct supervision of a licensed home inspector, residential builder, general contractor, engineer, or architect.

Copies of W2s and/or 1099s from employers should be provided with the application. The Home Inspector Experience Affidavit form must be completed by each supervisor/employer listed under the experience/education section of this application. If the information on the application does not match the Home Inspector Experience Affidavit(s), your application will be returned for corrections.

OR

- Successful completion of a formal course of training or study in home inspection approved by the Commission. Course completion certificates are valid for three (3) years and must match the applicant's legal name. These providers may offer multiple courses related to performing home inspections, but the Commission only accepts the courses that are a minimum of 120 hours.

LICENSURE BY ENDORSEMENT- WITHOUT TECHNICAL EXAMINATION

A Home Inspector license may be obtained without technical portion of the examination, if the applicant has a current license in another state that was obtained by examination. Grandfather licenses do not qualify for licensure by endorsement/without technical examination. The Commission does not accept home inspection course examinations or state home inspector registrations. Applicants must still meet one of the experience requirements listed below, and applicants must still take and pass the Business Management and Law portion of the examination.

Experience Requirements:

Applicants are required to meet one of the below experience requirements before they can be made eligible for the Business Management and Law portion of the examination.

- A minimum of one year of experience as a home inspector under the direction and direct supervision of a licensed home inspector, residential builder, general contractor, engineer, or architect.

Copies of W2s and/or 1099s from employers should be provided with the application. The Home Inspector Experience Affidavit form must be completed by each supervisor/employer listed under the experience/education section of this application. If the information on the application does not match the Home Inspector Experience Affidavit(s), your application will be returned for corrections.

OR

- Has performed a minimum of fifty (50) residential inspections, as evidenced by the name, address, telephone number, and summary page of each inspection being submitted for review.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS AND INSTRUCTIONS

COMPANY INFORMATION

Company information is only required if you intend to operate under the company name. If the company was incorporated in South Carolina, attach a copy of the Certificate of Existence (or Good Standing) from the SC Secretary of State. If the company was incorporated in another state, then attach a copy of the Certificate of Authority from the SC Secretary of State. Regardless of where the company was incorporated or organized, attach copies of the Articles of Incorporation or Organization and documentation establishing percentage of ownership in the company.

The names and information of all affiliated companies you will work under should be provided. You must own 51% of the company in order to list it on your license.

If you do not own at least 51% of the company, the company will need to apply for a Certificate of Authorization.

OUT-OF-STATE LICENSE INFORMATION

Provide information on all other jurisdictions where you have been or are currently licensed as a home inspector. You will need to contact the issuing agency for each state of licensure and have a verification of licensure sent directly to the Commission via email to Contact.RBC@lir.sc.gov or by mail.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

Home Inspector Exam: PSI Examination Services (PSI) administers the Commission's required examinations. Please visit their website for additional information about exam preparation, exam references and exam locations: <https://test-takers.psiexams.com/scrb/>. Exam fees are paid directly to PSI.

If you are applying for Licensure by South Carolina Technical Examination, you must pass both the Business Management and Law and the SC Home Inspector portions of the exam.

If you are applying for Licensure by NHIE Examination or Endorsement, you must pass the Business Management and Law portion of the exam.

Once approved to sit for the examination, your examination eligibility is valid for one year, and you are allowed only three (3) attempts to pass the exam within a twelve (12) month period. If you do not pass the exam within the twelve (12) month period, you will be required to reapply. If you fail the exam three (3) times, you will be required to wait twelve (12) months from the last date you failed the exam before you will be authorized to take the exam again. Additional information about examination eligibility and completing the post-exam application process will be sent to all approved applicants.

HOME INSPECTOR EXPERIENCE AFFIDAVIT INSTRUCTIONS

Home Inspector applicants may qualify for licensure by demonstrating a minimum of one year of experience as a home inspector under the direction and direct supervision of a licensed home inspector, residential builder, general contractor, engineer, or architect (Regulation 106-4).

The Commission verifies experience by requiring applicants to submit documentation from previous or current supervisors or employers.

Employer/Supervisor: Please fill out the attached Home Inspector Experience Affidavit, attesting to the applicant's experience.

All completed Experience Affidavits should be included with the initial application package.

Information and Instructions:

- If the applicant is seeking to qualify for licensure by demonstrating a minimum of one year of experience as a home inspector under the direction and supervision of a licensed home inspector, residential builder, general contractor, engineer, or architect, providing proof of required experience ensures a timely review of the application. Failure to provide adequate experience verification may result in a delay in a determination regarding the applicant's licensure application. It is imperative for the applicant and supervisor (experience verifier) to ensure all forms are accurate and complete.
- The Commission may contact individuals to verify the listed experience. All contact information listed on the form should be up to date, and the individual completing the form must have been appropriately licensed during the period of supervision.
- A separate form should be submitted for each employer/ supervisor.
- If seeking to qualify for licensure by demonstrating a minimum of one year of qualifying experience, in addition to the attached form, the applicant must provide proof of employment history (i.e., copies of W2's and/or 1099s) with their application packet.
- The Experience Affidavit is a fillable document. It should be downloaded and saved to a computer before completing. Completed affidavits must be legible to be considered.
