

REINSTATEMENT OF LICENSE REQUIREMENTS AND APPLICATION PROCESS OVERVIEW

Before calling in to the Board Office - You may check your application status online

If a license is expired for three (3) years or more, reinstatement of the license is not permissible on this form. The applicant must submit an application for licensure and complying with licensing requirements in effect at the time of the new application.

Licensure Requirements:

A person is qualified to receive a reinstatement of licensure if the following requirements are met:

1. Your license has lapsed within three (3) years from the date of application.
2. If you are currently licensed in another jurisdiction, you must in good standing.
3. You must complete the required continuing education as outlined in the Board CE Guidelines, <https://www.llr.sc.gov/vet/ce.aspx>, within the period of lapsed license:
 - For Veterinary license, thirty (30) hours
 - For Veterinarian Technician license, ten (10) hours
4. You must successfully pass the SC Jurisprudence Examination.

Application Process:

Your application is good for one (1) year from the date of receipt. If all required information is not received within this one (1) year period; you must begin the application process from the beginning. This includes, but is not limited to, the application fee, transcripts, license verifications, etc.

1. Application – In addition to a completed application, the following must also be sent:
 - Application Fee: An application fee must be submitted in order to process the application. Check or money order are to be made payable to SC Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners. (Fees are non-refundable and non-transferable) A returned check fee of up to $30, or an amount specified by law, may be assessed on all returned funds.

PRIVACY DISCLOSURE

South Carolina Law requires that every individual who applies for an occupational or professional license provide a social security number for use in the establishment, enforcement and collection of child support obligations and for reporting to certain databanks established by law. Failure to provide your social security number for these mandatory purposes will result in the denial of your licensure application. Social security numbers may also be disclosed to other governmental regulatory agencies and for identification purposes to testing providers and organizations involved in professional regulation. Your social security number will not be released for any other purpose not provided for by law.

Other personal information collected by the Department for the licensing boards it administers is limited to such personal information as is necessary to fulfill a legitimate public purpose. The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act ensures that the public has a right to access appropriate records and information possessed by a government agency. Therefore, some personal information on the application may be subject to public scrutiny or release. The Department collects and disseminates personal information in compliance with The South Carolina Freedom of Information Act, the South Carolina Family Privacy Protection Act, and other applicable privacy laws and regulations. Additionally, the Department shares certain information on the application with other governmental agencies for various governmental purposes, including research and statistical services.
